

Wine & Spots

If you are in the mood to imbibe a good glass of wine (or beer, or cocktail provided at a cash bar—remembering that political ads, particularly in our current political climate, are always easier to consume in tandem with an alcoholic beverage), to nibble on some appetizing appetizers (provided), to watch some lively entertainment in the form of political ads/web videos from the 2018 campaign season (many of which are in exceedingly poor taste!), and participate in some engaging discussion about those ads/videos, then please come to ECA's Wine and Spots Event.

When: Friday, April 12 from 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Where: The Newport Room - 3rd Level of the Omni Providence Hotel.

Sponsor: Richard E. Vatz

Ad/Video Presentation By: Colin Kearney, University of Florida.
